

Registered Dietitian informed Consent

I _____ give consent to Daniela Morgado, RD, CDE to provide Nutrition Counseling to myself or the client for which I am legally responsible. The consult will provide information and guidance about health factors within my own control: my diet, nutrition, and lifestyle.

I understand that Daniela Morgado, RD, CDE is a Registered Dietitian - not a medical physician – and does not dispense medical advice, nor will she diagnose or treat any medical condition, but will provide nutritional support and nutrition education for an already diagnosed condition. She provides education to enhance my knowledge of health using whole foods, dietary supplements, and lifestyle interventions. Methods of nutritional evaluation or testing made available to me are not intended to diagnose disease. Rather, this assessment is intended as a guide to developing an appropriate health – supportive program for me or my child, and to monitor my progress in achieving my goals.

Medical records and personal information and history divulged in session be kept confidential within the circle of care, unless I consent to sharing my medical information.

I agree to hold Daniela Morgado, RD harmless for claims or damages about our work together. This is a contract between myself and Daniela Morgado, RD, CDE and I understand that it is also a release of potential liability.

Lastly, I may be in contact with Daniela Morgado, RD, CDE using email communication to relay such items as appointment times and for brief check-ins to discuss progress. Because it is not possible to guarantee the security of this form of communication, it is generally not recommended that the client share other personal health information. However, it is the decision of the client what to include in his/her email communication and he/she takes full responsibility for the security of this information.

CANCELATION POLICY: cancellation of a dietitian appointment requires at least 24 hours notice (excluding weekends and holidays). Failure to give proper notification will result in a charge of $60. Dietitian services are not covered by OHIP. There is an appointment fee for nutritional counselling. Many extended health care benefits will cover Dietitian services. It is up to you, the patient, to submit to your insurer for reimbursement of the fees. Please contact your insurer for individual coverage. Payment is required at the time of the Dietitian appointment.
